

Day 1 - Freight Manager

requirement highlights

- a python program that will manage boxes and containers modeled after a freight management operation
- will execute single- and multi-table SQL statements
- will expose a console-based menu to allow users to manage the inventory and view business statistics
- persistence to be implemented in a file-based SQLite database, with validation mostly on the application layer